

National Bank of Poland Working Papers – 1988–2001

Number	Date	Title	Author
1	12/88	Crisis, adjustment and development in socialist economies: case of Poland	G.Kołodko
2	2/89	The dual currency system in the Polish economy and the methods and possibilities of its reduction	P.Wyczański
3	1989	The dual currency system in the Polish economy and the methods and possibilities of its reduction	P.Wyczański
4	12/89	Money policy and external disequilibrium	G.Jędrzejczak K.Kalicki
5	8/90	Capital markets: functions, developments and monetary policy	W.Fuhrmann
6	8/90	Inflation and the monetary system in Poland in the 1980s	Z.Polański
7	1/91	Privatization - some aspects of the process	K.Kalicki K.Nowiński I.Rutkowska
8	7/92	Exchange rate policies and balance of payments strategies during the transition from communism: the case of Poland	Z.Polański
9	5/94	Building a monetary economy in Poland in 1990s	Z.Polański
10	3/94	Household money demand and savings in Poland: an explanatory approach	E.Nijsse
11	8/94	National bank of Poland and open market operations	J.Osiński A.Sławiński
12	6/96	Size and cost efficiency in universal banking	G.Lang P.Welzel
13	9/96	Survey of the channels of the monetary transmission mechanism	T.P.Opiela
14	3/97	National Bank of Poland open market operations and the money marketing 95-96	A.Sławiński J.Osiński
15	5/99	National Bank of Poland monetary policy and capital flows	A.Sławiński
16	2/99	Empirical application of the "Nelson and Siegel" parsimonious zero-coupon yield curve model	M.Stamirowski
17	12/99	The Responsiveness of Loan Rates to Monetary Policy in Poland: The Effects of Bank Structure	T.P.Opiela
18	01/01	Assessing the Efficiency of Polish Commercial Banks	T.P.Opiela
19	03/01	Monetary transmission mechanism in Poland. Theoretical concepts vs. evidence	T.Łyziak
20	11/01	Transparency of monetary policy in Poland: yield curve responses to changes in official interest rates	J.Zieliński